Good Afternoon Angela:

The Emission Banking and Trading Information Management System will be updated appropriately to CN604782680. However, the three applications received on May 6, 2015 will not be processed since the two CNs represent the same company.

Thank you for your promptness in this matter. Have a nice weekend!

Marie

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Three Trade Applications: Form AR-2, Form AR-4, Form DEC-4 for RN101559235 - CORRECTION

Good morning Ms. Ward:

The cover letter states the incorrect customer number (CN), CN604651687, was provided in the original transfer requests and the correct CN is CN604782680.

Are the two CNs representative of the same company?
[Angela] Yes, both CNs are representative of the same company.

OR

Is Mountain Creek Power, LLC, CN604782680, purchasing the site and its allowances and credits listed on the three applications currently owned by Mountain Creek Power, LLC, CN604651687?

[Angela] No, there was no exchange of money. Mountain Creek Power, LLC (CN604651687) was created in August 2014, there was an error with the Texas Secretary of State filing. The paperwork was refiled with the Texas Secretary of State in September 2014 to re-create Mountain Creek Power, LLC with new CN and SOS filing numbers. The new CN is 604782680, the old CN, CN604651687 was terminated.

The differences I see is the Texas Secretary of State website is the filing number and tax ID Number. Why do the two have different filing numbers and tax ID Numbers? Did this cause the need for two CNs? Why was the entity status for Tax ID 32054794121 terminated?

[Angela] Please see above.

Also, why did Air Permits record you as a change of ownership for this update in Air Permits Division (APD) project 231950?

[Angela] Air Permits requested the paperwork be filed as an ownership change from Mountain Creek Power, LLC (CN604651687) to Mountain Creek Power, LLC (CN604782680) because they had already completed the ownership change from ExTex LaPorte, LP to Mountain Creek Power, LLC (CN604651687).

Thanks,

Marie Mercado, P.E.
