Hi Alexis,

The only thing you need to do is compile the project file and upload it to WCC. Please include this email thread in the project file so we can refer to it for questions about the site in the future. If you have any questions about uploading a DERC trade in WCC, let me know!

Thanks,
Zoe

Hi Zoe,

Thank you. From reading the previous chains is there anything else I need to do? It looks like I just need to update the project file and upload it to the WCC, is that correct?

Thank you,
Alexis

Hi Kelly and Alexis,

I talked to with Jeff Pedderson and he provided a brief history on the site and how the DERCs have not changed ownership. Based on our discussion and his email below, I am good with closing out this trade. Please add a project note to IMS to explain what was found with the CN in Central Registry, just for our records. It is not expected that this portfolio will be used again since all allowances and credits will have been moved out.

Zoe: Since Alexis is out, could you please do us the favor of adding the project note, closing out the project and emailing the letter to the company? Thanks!

Alexis: When you are back, please update the project file to include this email thread with the company as well as the finalized letter. Please provide to WCC.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks!
Melissa

There has been no ownership change in the credits and the old account can be closed.

Hello Mr. Pedderson,

Thank you for your email. I don't see a legal name change project being submitted through STEERS for this portfolio yet. If there is an issue with STEERS, please let me know and I would be happy to try to help.

If you are able to confirm in an email by writing a sentence stating that there was a legal name change from Targa Channelview LLC to Pike Baltimore Terminals LLC, we can go ahead with the DERC trade project.

Many thanks

Kelly

I appreciate it. It looks like there is a name change project in there to change P3684 to Pike Baltimore Terminals LLC.

The other Targa Terminals were sold, locations in Tacoma and Baltimore in 2018 and the Channelview site stayed with Targa. So that last Targa Terminals site in Channelview became Targa Channelview LLC.

If a phone call would be easier to help explain all this I can be reached on my cell at 713-492-1250.

Hi Kelly,

I need help with this. This DERC trade was completed in 2017 and the ownership changed in 2018. The account P3864 still appears as Targa Terminals LLC (ownership changed in 2018 to Targa Channelview LLC). In 2020 we had an issue with a MECT trade and I was told I couldn't change the name in P3864 but had to create a new account, P4005.

What do I need to do to get these moved to our Galena Park account? Thanks for your help.

Best regards,

Jeff

Subject: RE: [EXTERNAL] RE: DERC Trade for Portfolio P3441 - Targa Downstream LLC

Good Morning Mr. Pedderson,

This message is in follow-up to DERC trade 415536 to transfer DERCs from portfolio P3864 to P3441.

You are correct, the site associated to P3864 underwent a change of ownership, as discussed with EBT, in 2018 and the site's new compliance portfolio is P4005. However, the DERCs residing in P3864 did not automatically move to the new owner's compliance portfolio. Credits and allowances may only be moved from one portfolio to another through the submission of a trade application. Since a trade was not submitted, the DERCs remained in P3864.

During the processing of project 415536, it was found that the Customer Reference Number (CN) associated to P3864 is no longer for TARGA TERMINALS LLC, but for PIKE BALTIMORE TERMINALS LLC. From what we could find in the TCEQ Central Registry and Secretary of State (SOS) registry, we understand that the change in the CN is due to a legal name change, not a change in ownership. To complete the trade, we would just want to confirm that this is a legal name change. If so, we will complete the trade.

If Targa wishes to update the legal name associated to P3864, this can be done by submitting a name change application through the State of Texas Environmental Electronic Reporting System (STEERS).

Please let us know if you have additional questions. I will be out of the office this afternoon, so please reach out to the EBT work leader Kelly MacKenzie at kelly.mackenzie@tceq.texas.gov while I am away.

Thank you,

Melissa Ruano

Hi Alexis,

The old account was P3684, there was a change in ownership to Targa in 2018 and EBT asked us to establish a new account P4005. The credits were not moved over (not sure why) when the new account was created.

Thanks,

Jeff

Good Morning Alexis,

I am good with the details of the trade in your letters; however as you previously identified, there is a Central Registry/name issue with this project. Specifically, the CN affiliated to the Seller has a new legal name and there is history in our database showing that the site changed ownership from TARGA TERMINALS LLC to TARGA CHANNELVIEW LLC (P4005).

In the case of an Ownership Change, the old owner is not obligated to transfer credits/allowances to the new owner. If the old owner elects to retain the credits/allowances, their portfolio essentially becomes a Broker account (just without the BKR number) for future transactions. For this case, I am okay with letting the trade go through; however before we complete the trade, here is what I would like to do:

- Please get with Zoe to write up an email to the Seller to notify them that the CN affiliated to P3864 is now under PIKE BALTIMORE TERMINALS LLC and if they can please confirm that this is a Legal Name Change, and not an Ownership Change for the portfolio. I feel that it is a legal name change (see attachement from SOS direct) but I would like to also have written confirmation from the company.
- Once we have confirmation, we will let them know that we will allow the trade, but that they will need to submit a Name Change project through STEERS to update the account for the future.
- If they come back saying that the change to PIKE BALTIMORE was an ownership change, let's talk.

Let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thanks!
Melissa

Hi Alexis,

Approved with edits. For the project file, I added the portfolio summaries for both seller and buyer. Since this a VOC trade, you will need to make sure you're taking a summary of the VOC portfolio.

For the seller central registry RN page – the seller company on IMS, Targa Terminals LLC, is not listed as an affiliated customer for the site, Channelview Terminal. When I search the seller CN in central registry, I get results for a company named Pike Baltimore Terminals LLC. Per project 414996, ownership of the Channelview Terminal changed from Targa Terminals LLC (the seller listed in this trade project) to Targa Channelview LLC (not a company in this trade project) in Feb 2020. I'm not sure what the ownership situation is here. Please check with Melissa and Kelly before proceeding. Please cc me/let me know what they say.

Thanks
Zoe
